THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Firearms and ammunition in undetermined quantities reportedly are being stored by YU Kiong, Manager of the YU Cho Company,¹ Gasan, Marinduque, and YU Shua, his nephew. Both men reportedly are Communists.
2. The Gasan firm, a branch of a general merchandising enterprise in Manila, recently included quantities of arms and ammunition in an overseas shipment of copra. It is believed that these arms supplies were trans-shipped to Hong Kong or Canton.
3. The Philippine Constabulary (PC) reportedly has raided the Gasan branch of the firm and discovered quantities of arms and ammunition, as well as Communist literature. The case was settled by a bribe by YU Kiong who is an intimate of the Governor of Marinduque.²
